The Elaborate Shopper

Cooking vacation in Tuscany

At Casa Ombuto, cooking enthusiasts will learn how to create Italian specialties while relaxing in the heart of Italy. The week-long cooking adventure includes hands-on classes, accommodations in a Tuscan villa and includes retreats to a winery and local olive-oil producer. Friends and family can join the chef, but do not have to participate in the cooking classes (at a lesser fee), and can play golf or take local sightseeing instead.
