3+ Fabulous Cooking Vacations in Tuscany

With the snow piling up, and the outside temperature going down, now is the perfect time to start planning that dream getaway in Tuscany. Close your eyes and picture yourself relaxing by a pool in a luxurious villa in Italy, thinking about the delicious food you'll be preparing and eating later that day. And the wine....oh the wine.

Here's a list of some fabulous destinations for a Tuscan cooking vacation.

#1 Tuscookany Cooking Schools in Tuscany

Tuscookany Cooking Schools in Italy offer a variety of cooking vacations at three different all-inclusive, luxurious villas located in the Tuscan countryside. Each private villa features en suite bedrooms, common living areas, gardens, a swimming pool, hot tub, and a sauna/fitness area. The culinary program includes cooking classes in the afternoons, while most mornings are free for exploring on your own. In the evening, guests dine together on their creations, complimented with fine Italian wines (of course). A variety of cooking classes are offered, including Mediterranean and Italian Cooking Classes, ranging from 3 days to 1-week.
