The Italian cooking school is run by Paola Baccetti in Casa Ombuto and Franco Palandra in Torre del Tartufo and the Italian Mediterranean cookery course is run by Laura Giusti. Our chefs have been giving cooking lessons in our cooking schools in Tuscany Italy for many years. The lessons are given in English and for the Italian cookery course you will learn to make classic Tuscan dishes and for the Italian Mediterranean cookery course you learn to make dishes not only from Italy but also France, Spain and Morocco. Casa Ombuto and Torre del Tartufo are both luxurious villas with large heated pools and are both set on extensive estates in the Tuscan hills with spectacular views of the surrounding hills and valleys.
